WELCOME

TO THE NORBURY THEATRE'S AUTUMN & WINTER SEASON

NODA
AWARD

Welcome to the Autumn brochure, the season of mists and mellow fruitfulness.

Time to relax a bit before the start of the Festive season. And here at the Norbury we have just the recipe to do that.

You may have noticed a lack of Cinema during the last twelve months. Well the cinema team have been working on a new formula, Wednesday Evening showings are back and we have introduced showings on Wednesday Afternoons as well. Not forgetting the children there are now screenings on Saturday Mornings, check the dates and put them in your diary so as not to miss out.

The Norbury Players Autumn musical is Our House an Olivier Award-winning jukebox musical written by Tim Firth and featuring the music of The British ska and pop band Madness. A fun filled trip back to the 80's and one not to miss.

Children's Theatre returns in September with a host of exciting plays for our little ones from the age of about three to eight yrs old, They make great birthday treats and an ideal way to spend a Saturday afternoon. These shows are extremely popular and sell out quickly to book early to avoid disappointment.

We welcome back some of our regular hirers and congratulate the "Lollipop" company celebrating their 10th year with a musical show at the end of September.

Other offerings include The Lady in the Van, Gilbert and Sullivan's Ruddigore and a teen version of the musical Six. Wynsical Theatre are back for Christmas.

Welcome to Logan Paul Murphy visiting us for first time with songs of The Beatles and Elton John, and something different from Luke Baker, as he hosts the "Might As Well Giggle Comedy Club". And welcome back to everyone's favourite Tony James with his eighties show.

Lots going on and all leading up to January and Panto. This time it's Puss in Boots "oh yes it is" tickets are on sale and will sell fast so don't miss out. Details can be found in the brochure.

Enjoy the season and I hope to be able to welcome you to the theatre very soon.

Best wishes

SATURDAY 12 SEPTEMBER
LOGAN PAUL MURPHY
THE BEATLES & ELTON JOHN
WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM THEIR FRIENDS

One guitar. One piano. One hell of a voice.

Step into a world of timeless music as 19-year-old musical sensation Logan Paul Murphy takes the stage in this captivating one-man theatre show. Armed with just a piano, a guitar, and a voice that stops audiences in their tracks, Logan celebrates the legendary songs of The Beatles and Elton John - with a few surprises along the way. As seen on Channel 4's hit TV series The Piano, and a regular performer at the world-famous Cavern Club in Liverpool, Logan is no stranger to the spotlight. His talent and charisma have already won over audiences across the UK - and now he's bringing his unforgettable live show to theatres nationwide.

With his infectious personality and world-class musicianship, Logan delivers stunning interpretations of iconic hits from two of the greatest acts in music history, as well as songs by their famous friends and collaborators - including Billy Joel, Elvis Presley, Neil Sedaka, and many more. This is not a tribute show - it's a heartfelt celebration of music, nostalgia, and talent, brought to life with energy, soul, and stories that stay with you long after the final note.

Whether you're a lifelong fan or simply love incredible live music, this is a must-see night of magic.

ALL & SUNDRY PRESENT

THE LADY IN THE VAN

Originally written as a radio play, Alan Bennett's delightful gem tells the true story of Miss Shepherd, an eccentric and contradictory homeless woman, who parks her broken down van on his London driveway for a temporary three months, but remains there for fifteen years! Bennett's story unfolds in front of the audience's eyes, making his split psychology sharper and more exposed. Miss Shephard is a rich and complex character, showing her vulnerabilities and stubbornness. The play is a rich, at times extraordinary slice of life that makes it a truly successful play that delights audiences.

The Lady in the Van transferred to the live stage at The London Theatre and became a very successful and acclaimed film in 2015.

LANDSHIP

89mins Cert. 15 2026 Genre: War

Starring: David Dobson, Vin Hawke, Sam Dowdy

The Battle of Passchendaele, 1917. For three years the great war has been waging, and the two armies find themselves entrenched along the four-hundred-mile Western Front. At the start of a pivotal allied offensive to break the stalemate, the nine-man crew of a British tank set out to destroy a series of heavily defended German bunkers. Advancing across no-man's-land under all seems lost when the tank becomes trapped in a giant shell crater within only a few yards of enemy lines. However, determined not to perish amongst the fetid mud and poison smog of the battlefield, the soldiers must rally together to fight for survival against starvation, shellshock, and relentless gunfire.

LOLLIPOP YOUTH THEATRE PRESENT

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST JR

An Enchantress turns a cruel Prince into a Beast; to break the spell, he must learn to love and be loved in return before the last petal falls from an enchanted rose. In a small village, the intelligent Belle dreams of more than her provincial life. When her father, Maurice, is imprisoned in the Beast's castle, Belle offers herself in his place. Though the Beast is initially hostile, he and Belle slowly grow closer, encouraged by the castle's enchanted staff. After the Beast saves Belle from wolves, their bond deepens.

However, Belle discovers her father is in danger, and the Beast releases her to help him. Back in the village, the jealous Gaston leads a mob to storm the castle and destroy the Beast. During the battle, Gaston confronts the Beast, but the Beast refuses to kill him. Belle rushes to the castle and confesses her love just as the last petal falls, breaking the curse. The Beast transforms back into a Prince, the staff returns to human form, and they live happily ever after.

This production is being performed by two separate teams.

RUDDIGORE

Ruddigore, or The Witch's Curse is A delightfully dark comic operetta from Gilbert & Sullivan.

Ruddigore is packed with eccentric characters, supernatural twists, and sparkling wit.

Robin Oakapple seems destined for a quiet country life until he admits to all that he is the rightful Baronet of Ruddigore, heir to an ancient family curse that compels each Baronet to commit a crime every day or face a terrible fate. As Robin grapples with his newfound identity, ghostly ancestors emerge from their portraits, love becomes delightfully complicated, and Gilbert & Sullivan's trademark satire and unforgettable music bring this gloriously gothic tale to life.

Full of humour, romance, memorable melodies and just the right touch of the supernatural, Ruddigore is a wonderfully entertaining evening for audiences of all ages.

clever cat!

When poor young Jack inherits nothing but a scruffy old cat after his father's death, it seems his fortunes have taken a turn for the worse. But this is no ordinary feline! Pulling on a pair of magical boots, the quick-witted Puss hatches an ingenious plan to transform his master's life from rags to riches.

With the help of his sharp tongue, daring tricks and plenty of audience participation, Puss sets out to outsmart a fearsome ogre, fool a boastful King and win the heart of the beautiful Princess. Along the way there are colourful characters, hilarious misunderstandings, toe-tapping songs, dazzling dance routines and plenty of pantomime fun for the whole family.

Will Puss's cunning schemes succeed? Can Jack become the wealthy Marquis everyone believes him to be? And will true love triumph before the wicked ogre's plans come to fruition?

Join us for a spectacular pantomime full of magic, comedy and adventure, proving that with a little courage, a lot of imagination and a very clever cat in a fabulous pair of boots, anything is possible!!
